Hello My New Friends!

I know the project you are planning is an important one, so I'm thrilled that you found your way to this proposal.

I work with leaders and event planning teams to deliver keynote presentations and virtual learning programs that address current challenges and initiatives. These typically include:

- Reducing burnout & turnover by improving work-life balance
- Improving engagement throughout change
- Increasing productivity in high demand organizations

I'm highly motivated to work with you. As a result of my presentations, your people will come away with inspiration and research based tools for better work-life balance, a thrive-under-stress productivity plan, and a revitalized appreciation for being part of your organization.

Recent Feedback on Virtual Programs:

- A multinational construction firm had record attendance of over 300 attendees (average 80-90) and exceptional program evaluations
- A international accounting firm has reported growing attendance throughout the virtual series, better morale, more efficient and productive performance reviews, and frequent use of the tools presented.
- After a Keynote virtual presentation last month, a banking organization rehired me to present to their leadership team on "how to motivate employees in high stress situations."

I look forward to exploring how these programs can help increase your people.

-Andy Core

"The American Institute of Stress estimates that job stress costs U.S. industry more than $300 billion a year in absenteeism, turnover, diminished productivity, and medical, legal and insurance costs."

Let me introduce myself, I'm Andy.

Armed with a master's degree in the science of human performance, I've spent over twenty years researching ways to better equip people to thrive in today's high demand workplaces. I'd love to help your people develop great attitudes, achieve huge accomplishments, and lower costs.

Andy Core, MS By The Numbers

- Over 1,100 presentations on 3 continents (North America, Asia and Europe)
- 5 Star peak performance author (Wiley Publishing, NY, NY)
- Over 2 decades of experience as a researcher, author, and speaker
- 2 Professional degrees (BS Pre-Med, MS Human Performance)
- Client change that lasts up to 13X longer than the national average

 I believe in hard working adults and their ability to accomplish more, both on the job and off. I also believe that you don't have to "change your life" to dramatically improve, but you do have to Change Your Day. -Andy Core

Awards

My Most Requested Topics.

Each presentation below has earned top-rated speaker honors. I will customize your presentation to your goals, audience, and location.

Change Your Day, Not Your Life

The great paradox is this: hard-working adults who strive to achieve more often end up defaulting to a daily routine that undermines their ability to succeed. But the secret to escaping the paradox is surprisingly simple: Change Your Day, Not Your Life.

Leading Under Stress

This program teaches leaders how to energize their people and themselves when stress hits. Your leaders will learn three evidence-based ideas and a formula they can use to better manage times of high workload and organizational or industry change. They'll also discover how to communicate that change in a way that improves focus and proactive behavior.

Life Balance & Redefining Humanly Possible

Today's work culture has us constantly running 90mph with our hair on fire, and tomorrow will be even faster. The good news is that what we yearn for — a better balance of life and work — is actually the solution to the "do more-with less" dilemma. In this program, you'll learn how to improve your balance, productivity, and ability to stay motivated in turbulent times.

(Your Topic Here)

I frequently custom design presentations for my clients. Most common requests include improving commitment during change, reducing stress and burnout, or providing a "thank you" work-life balance program.
